Prize Winning Canadian Peonies Exhibited In London

This unique picture shows the much discussed Canadian Peonies grown in Montreal by Mr. Normiston Roy and shipped to England in cold storage in a Canadian Pacific vessel, on exhibit in the Analysis of the Canadian Pacific offices in London, England. The Royal Hortfueltural Society has presented the Banksia Silver Medal to Mr. Roy, and several London papers have remarked officericity upon the extraordinarily perfect condition of the blooms after their long sea voyas, An increasing feature of the picture is that in the window may be seen the reflection of the new Canadian Building with stands almost directly opposite the Canadian Pacific Offices and was recently opened by the King and Queen.

MANY IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS CARRIED

There were a number of resolutions discussed and passed, among which were the following: that the post office savings de-partment be extended and used as a means of providing finance for Government use; that the economic group idea be retained as opposed to party organization; the provincial department of Education be requested to de lete from text blooks all glorifica tion of war; that a Federal Reserve Bank be put into operation; and that the indemnity of Federal members be arranged on a sliding scale. In discussing this latter resolution it was pointed out that Western members who were away from home six months of the year lost a lot more in a business way and were at a greater expense than Eastern members, and Eastern members should be paid less accordingly. One dele-gate suggested that every M.P. should have to punch a clock, so as too keep them all on the job.

Officers elected included: F. Aitlen, president; W. Skinner, vice-president.

The convention was in the truest sense a success. There was a good attendance of delegates and a large crowd of interested farmers and visitors. Many Locals unable to be represented forwarded their annual fees and their good wishes. The singing of the National Anthem brought proceedings to a close at 6 p.m.
